Reference/Bibliography Guide

For a book

Standard format

[#] Author/s, Title: Subtitle (in italics), Edition (if not the first). Place of publication: Publisher, Year, page number(s). (if applicable).

4

For a Book

Name/s of author/s, editor/s, compiler/s

- Initials and family name of each Edgar Frank Codd
- Leave a space between initials and between the last initial and the family name, e.g. E. F. Codd.
- In the case of multiple authors, commas go between each name; “and” comes before the last name.

5

For a Book

Title of publication and subtitle if any

- All titles must be italicized.
- Capitalize the first and the last words
- Capitalize all nouns, pronouns, adjectives, verbs, adverbs, and subordinating conjunctions.
- Lowercase articles, coordinating conjunctions, and prepositions.

6

For a Book

One author

7

For a Book

More than one author

9

For an Article

Standard format

[#] Author/s, "Title of article" (in double quotation marks), Title of Journal (in italics), vol. #, no. #, pp. page number/s, Month year.

10

For an Article

Title of article

- in double quotation marks
- Capitalize only the first word (except for proper nouns, acronyms, etc.)

Title of journal

- italicized; can be abbreviated
- IEEE journal titles are abbreviated according to the List of IEEE Transactions, Journals and Letters

11

For an Article

Volume number – use lowercase for vol.

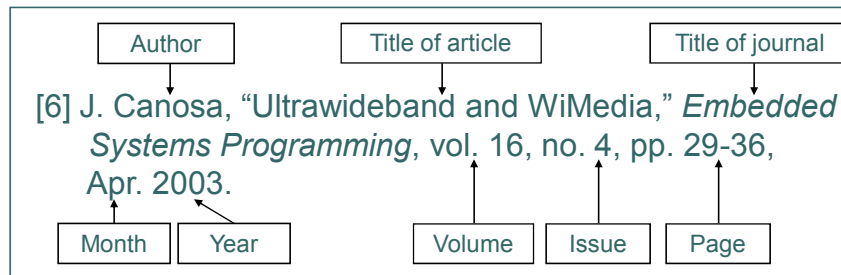

Issue number

- use lowercase for no.
- Issue number is not used when referencing IEEE Transactions

12

For an Article

Journal article

17

For Electronic Resources

Electronic Resources should contain as much information as possible

If the address must run across more than one line, follow these guidelines:

- Break only after a forward slash or a "dot"
- Do not split at hyphens, tildes, etc., that are part of the address
- Separating the extension is discouraged

A Reference List: What Should It Look Like?

- The reference list should appear at the end of your paper.
- References must be listed in the order in which they were cited.
- The bracketed number should be on the line, and the lines of each entry indented.
- List only one reference per bracketed number.
