

1) We do not know how to catch the frisbee and we lost many opportunities to score.

2) We need to consistently use our skills to improve onto them. We should create and use our opportunities.

3) There was no referee in our life and referees should be honest with ourself.

4) There was little to no strategy & teamwork involved.

5) It is better to plan ahead and come up with strategies to win.